

Culture and Communication

Understanding and discussing a film.

1

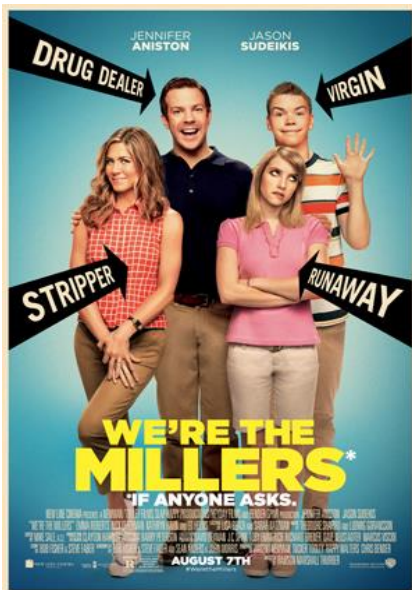

Type of resource	Pedagogical sheet about a film.
Description of the resource	This resource proposes a didactic sheet to check comprehension and discuss the film “We’re the Millers”.
Target population	This lesson can be used by both language teachers for their classes or language learners at a B2 level for self-study.
Resource designer	Edwin Londoño Alape, language teacher at UNAD, Schools of Educational Sciences, 2023.

This sheet proposes the film “We’re the Millers”, which is a fantastic and thoroughly hilarious comedy. The film can be seen on digital platforms or on the net. Undoubtedly, you’d have a great time!

BEFORE THE FILM

Activity 1: Look at the cover of the film "We're the Millers" and establish some hypotheses about its plot. What do you think the film is about?

DURING THE FILM

Activity 2: What are the main characters of the film? List them and give a brief description of their roles.

1. _____ Role: _____
2. _____ Role: _____
3. _____ Role: _____
4. _____ Role: _____
5. _____ Role: _____

Activity 3: Identify 10 words or expressions that summarize the film.

- | | |
|----------|-----------|
| 1. _____ | 6. _____ |
| 2. _____ | 7. _____ |
| 3. _____ | 8. _____ |
| 4. _____ | 9. _____ |
| 5. _____ | 10. _____ |

AFTER THE FILM

Activity 4: What were the topics treated in the film? Match the ones you identified.

- | | |
|--|---|
| Friendship <input type="checkbox"/> | Love <input type="checkbox"/> |
| Drug trafficking <input type="checkbox"/> | Sexuality <input type="checkbox"/> |
| Immigration <input type="checkbox"/> | Familiar unity <input type="checkbox"/> |
| Homosexuality <input type="checkbox"/> | Vacations <input type="checkbox"/> |
| Dangerous animals <input type="checkbox"/> | National borders <input type="checkbox"/> |

Activity 5: Make a drawing about the best part of the film for you.

Activity 6: Answer the following comprehension questions about the film.

1. Why did David Miller decide to conform to a fake family?

2. Did he choose the right people for this?

Yes ☐ No ☐ Why?

3. Why did Rose, Casey and Kenny accept the proposal to create the family?

- A. To get some money.
 - B. To create a friendship.
 - C. To help him achieve his goal.
 - D. To go on vacations.
4. How did "The Millers" end after the adventure they lived?
- A. They ended up hating David Miller because he didn't pay the agreed money.
 - B. David and Rose fell in love with each other and adopted Casey and Kenny.
 - C. They all ended up in jail because of drug trafficking.
 - D. Each one of them took the agreed money and went their own way.

Activity 7: What was your favourite character and why?

Activity 8: How did you like the film? Match the answer you consider and explain why.

Awesome	Interesting	Ok	Boring	A waste of time
